Monmouth Plantation has the great honor of receiving two outstanding awards from Condé Nast Traveler and Travel & Leisure Magazine

NATCHEZ< Miss - Monmouth Plantation has been selected for "THE TRAVEL AND LEISURE 500 - THE WORLD'S BEST HOTELS and also "THE CONDÉ NAST TRAVELER - JANUARY 2008 GOLD LIST.

"We are so very grateful to have been included in both T&L and the Condé Nast Gold List 2008. We would like to thank all the readers and travelers who have been so gracious and wonderful to let others know about us," said Lani Riches, co-owner with her husband Ron Riches.

The Condé Nast Traveler Gold List cites the following about Monmouth:

"The Staff is as charming as the place."

This 1818 Greek Revival mansion and 8 outlying buildings spread over 26 acres are filled with pre-civil war antiques. "the wooden floors and high ceilings were reminiscent of an old plantation". At the restaurant, "the filet with sun-dried tomato and gorgonzola were spectacular". Most rooms have working fireplaces and whirlpool tubs. Some look over the croquet court.

Monmouth Plantation, a National Historic Landmark (circa 1818), is an ideal venue for corporate retreats, executive meetings and weddings, or as a romantic getaway for leisure travelers. Monmouth Plantation, in its splendor and timeless glory, graciously awaits to enfold its guests in luxury and service. Guests can enjoy a fabulous dinner in the main house, play a game of croquet by the pergola, lie in the hammock and soak in the day. With 26 acres of manicured grounds, there is always an enjoyable walkway, courtyard or gazebo in which to enjoy a Mint Julep.

Monmouth Plantation, a four Diamond rated hotel by AAA is a member of Historic Hotels of America, Small Luxury Hotels of the World, Select Registry, and Condé Nast Johansens. Recognized as "One of the Most Romantic Places in the USA" by Glamour magazine.
