

Monmouth Plantation Reviewed on the Today Show today!

NATCHEZ, Miss – Monmouth Plantation was selected today for the segment on “What to do with your Stimulus Check?” on the Today Show.

Peter Greenburg discussed the Monmouth packages that are valued at $600 or less - while showing footage of Monmouth Plantation and its gardens.

It is with great pleasure that this promotion made news today. We are so grateful that Monmouth was selected to be reviewed.

Nestled amid a 26 acre wooded park in the heart of Natchez, Mississippi, Monmouth Plantation, a National Historic Landmark (circa 1818), is an ideal venue for corporate retreats, executive meetings and weddings, and as a romantic getaway for leisure travelers. Monmouth Plantation, in its entire splendor and timeless glory, graciously waits to enfold its guests in luxury and service.

Monmouth guests can enjoy a fabulous dinner in the main house, play croquet by the pergola, sit in the Adirondacks and soak in the day, stroll leisurely around the 29-acre grounds, view the pond from the gazebo, sip on cocktails in the courtyard or at the bar, and relax amid the southern charm of Monmouth’s tall oaks.

Rated four diamonds by AAA, Monmouth Plantation is proud to be a member of Small Luxury Hotels of the World, Historic Hotels of America, Select Registry and featured in Conde Nast Johansen’s Guide.
